FEAST OF THE FALLING ASLEEP OF OUR LADY, THE MOST HOLY THEOTOKOS

EPISTLE & GOSPEL

"My soul magnifies the lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior.
Verse. For he has regarded the humility of his servant."

The Epistle selection for today's Divine Liturgy is for the Dormition of the Theotokos. The reading is from Saint Paul's Letter to the Philippians (2:5-11). BRETHREN, have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form he humbled himself and became obedient unto death, even death on a cross. Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

The Gospel selection for today is for the Dormition of the Theotokos. The reading is from the Holy Gospel according to Saint Luke (10:38 to end;11:27-28): At that time: As they went on their way, Jesus entered a village; and a woman named Martha received him into her house. And she had a sister called Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet and listened to his teaching. But Martha was distracted with much serving; and she went to him and said, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to serve alone? Tell her then to help me." But the Lord answered her, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things; few things are needful, or only one. Mary has chosen the good portion, which shall not be taken away from her." As he said this, a woman in the crowd raised her voice and said to him, "Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the breasts that you sucked! But he said, "Blessed rather are those who hear the word of God and keep it!"

TODAY'S LITURGICAL VARIABLE HYMNS AUGUST 15, 2010

TROPARIAN OF THE RESURRECTION (Tone 3)

Let the heavens rejoice and the earth be glad; for the Lord hath done a mighty act with his own arm. He hath trampled down death and become First-born from the dead. He hath delivered us from the depth of hades, granting the world the Great Mercy.

TROPARION OF THE DORMITION (Tone 1)

In thy birth-giving, O Theotokos, thou didst keep and preserve virginity; and in thy falling-asleep thou hast not forsaken the world; for living thou wast translated, being the Mother of Life. Wherefore, by thine intercessions, deliver our souls from death.

TROPARION HYMN OF ST. GEORGE

As deliverer of captives and defender of the poor, healer of the infirm, champion of kings, victorious Great Martyr George, intercede with Christ our God for our soul's salvation.

KONTAKION OF THE DORMITION (Tone 2)

Verily, the Theotokos, who is ever watchful in intercessions, who is never rejected, neither tomb nor death could control. But being the Mother of Life, he who dwelt in her ever-virgin womb did translate her to life.
